Petersbourg, April 19, O. S.

M. Kizerling, who has been for ſome Time at this Court with the Prince of Bevern, has received the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Wolfembuttel, and will ſoon have his firſt Audience in that Quality of the Czarina. M. Kune, a Swiſs Merchant, is gone to Narva to hire a Ship or two, to tranſport to France about 200 French Soldiers, who were left laſt Year ſick at that Place, when the others went from thence.

Warſaw, May 5, N. S. The Prince of Weiſſenfeldt arrived here the 28th paſt, and was very well received at Court; and as a Mark of it, he has been preſented by King Auguſtus with a Diamond Ring of Value, and a Bill of 50,000 Crowns for his late Services. The 1ſt Inſtant, the Caſtellan of Cracow, the Palatin of Kiow, the Grand Marſhal, and the Crown Maſter of the Horſe, with their Families, came hither; and the next Day had Audience of King Auguſtus, and the Honour of dining with him. A Solemn Deputation of the Army that remained with the Palatin of Kiow, have alſo had an Audience. The Palatin of Culm, and others, are gone to Lublin, to open the great Tribunal of the Kingdom there, which was held ſome Months ago at Petrickow, and adjourned to that Place, as uſual. The Stolnick of Lithuania Sapieha, is appointed to go with the Biſhop of Warmia, who is already in that Dioceſe, to treat with the Lithuanians concerning their Accommodation with this Court, to which they now ſeem inclined, according to Accounts from thence. A General Meeting of the Palatinate of Podolia, was to be the 26th of laſt Month, to name Deputies for acknowledging King Auguſtus, according to the Account of the Storaſta Belſh, a near Relation of the Primate, and of ſeveral others who have already been with the Prince of Heſſe Hombourg at Leopold for that Purpoſe. General Lacy goes to Day or Tomorrow for Cracow, from whence, as is given out, he is to march with his Body of Ruſſian Troops directly for the Rhine, according to his preſent Orders; and Commiſſaries from the Emperor are to meet him upon the Frontiers. That General ſays, that Orders were very lately come from his Court, for making up the Number 30,000 Men for the Emperor's Service as ſoon as poſſible. The Primate has writ to the Caſtellan of Cracow by the laſt Poſt, deſiring him to anſwer for his Fidelity to King Auguſtus, and ſollicit his being ſet at Liberty, though he does not ſay he will immediately acknowledge him for his King; he has alſo writ to the Felt-Marſhal Munich, begging to be releaſed, but without mentioning King Auguſtus.
